Introduction

MEXMUN, recognized as one of the most outstanding Model United Nations in Mexico, takes pride in its extensive trajectory of over 30 years, during which it has built a reputation for excellence. To carry out a high-quality Model United Nations aligned with the diplomatic standards of the United Nations and other international organizations, and as a symbol of the professionalism and formality that characterize this event, the Organizing Committee, together with the High Secretariat, has implemented a strict dress code. Strict adherence to this code is essential to honor the seriousness of the event and what it represents.

If, for any reason, a delegate cannot comply with the dress code, no sanctions will be applied. However, the delegate or school must communicate this situation via email to the official MEXMUN address, including the delegate's name and an explanation of the reasons. All such cases will be considered valid to avoid any conflicts when delegates are unable to comply due to personal circumstances.
